

About Joel & Amy Siegel

Faith in God's Word, and continual reliance on the Holy Spirit have been the keys to success in the lives and ministry of Joel and Amy Siegel. Raised and educated as a Jew, Joel Siegel, at age 18, had a life-transforming encounter with Christ that brought him true purpose and fulfillment. Amy Siegel was also saved at 18, having grown up and served in a church where she never had heard the good news about a personal relationship with Christ.

Rev. Joel Siegel began preaching and teaching the Word of God soon after he was saved in 1986. He entered full-time ministry in 1990, serving for three years as the music director for the acclaimed gospel music group Truth. Truth's road schedule took Joel and Amy worldwide to over 300 cities a year, ministering in churches and on college campuses.

From 1993 to 2000, Joel was the musical director for Rev. Kenneth E. Hagin's RHEMA Singers & Band. In addition to assisting Rev. Hagin in his crusade meetings, he produced eight music CD's for the ministry, including his first solo release, Trust & Obey.

As a musician, Joel is an accomplished woodwind performer, songwriter, arranger, and producer. He has toured internationally as a professional musician to Mexico, The Bahamas, Jamaica, Italy, Hungary, Russia, Romania, South Korea, The Philippines, Canada, and the U.S. He has appeared on stage with many Christian and secular artists including Don Moen, Ron Kenoly, Alvin Slaughter, Aretha Franklin, Bernadette Peters, Ben Vereen, Frankie Valli, The Four Tops, and The Temptations. A frequent performer with the Buffalo Philharmonic Orchestra, he recently participated in their recording of the music of George Gershwin, on the Naxos label.

From 2000 to 2011, the Siegels served as the founding pastors of Good News Family Church in Orchard Park, NY. During this time, they were frequently asked to host shows for the TCT Christian Television Network. Joel regularly hosted their popular Ask The Pastor program.

Rev. Amy Siegel has been a successful minister in her own right for many years. A graduate of the Eastman School of Music in Rochester, NY, Amy is a worship leader who skillfully flows with God. Having served for several years in a preaching capacity, she boldly proclaims God's Word, and has a powerful ministry of impartation.

Joel and Amy Siegel are both 1995 graduates of RHEMA Bible Training Center in Tulsa, OK. Both are ordained ministers.

The Siegels now spend their time ministering to congregations in the US and abroad. They minister on a variety of subjects, and are passionate about the great move of God that has come to the earth.
