

About Joel Siegel

Faith in God's Word, and continual reliance on the Holy Spirit have been the keys to success in the life and ministry of Rev. Joel Siegel. Raised and educated as a Jew, Joel Siegel, at age 18, had a life-transforming encounter with Christ that brought him true purpose and fulfillment. He began preaching and teaching the Word of God soon after he was saved in 1986 and entered full-time ministry in 1990, serving for three years as the music director for the acclaimed gospel music group Truth. Truth's road schedule took Joel and his wife Amy worldwide to over 300 cities a year, ministering in churches and on college campuses.

From 1993 to 2000, Joel was the musical director for Rev. Kenneth E. Hagin's RHEMA Singers & Band. In addition to assisting Rev. Hagin in his crusade meetings, he produced eight music CD's for the ministry, including his first solo release, Trust & Obey.

As a musician, Joel is an accomplished woodwind performer, songwriter, arranger, and producer. He has toured internationally as a professional musician to Mexico, The Bahamas, Jamaica, Italy, Hungary, Russia, Romania, South Korea, The Philippines, Canada, and the U.S. He has appeared on stage with many Christian and secular artists including Don Moen, Ron Kenoly, Alvin Slaughter, Aretha Franklin, Bernadette Peters, Ben Vereen, Frankie Valli, The Four Tops, and The Temptations. A frequent performer with the Buffalo Philharmonic Orchestra, he participated in their recording of the music of George Gershwin, on the Naxos label.

From 2000 to 2011, the Siegels served as the founding pastors of Good News Family Church in Orchard Park, NY. During this time, they were frequently asked to host shows for the TCT Christian Television Network. Joel regularly hosted their popular Ask The Pastor program.

Joel and Amy Siegel are both 1995 graduates of RHEMA Bible Training College in Tulsa, OK. Both are ordained ministers. The Siegels make their home in Colorado. Joel oversees Faith Church Colorado in the town of Castle Rock, where Amy is lead pastor.

Joel Siegel travels full-time, ministering to congregations in the US and abroad. He ministers on a variety of subjects and is passionate about the great move of God that has come to the earth.

